

The Many Sides of Conductor Bramwell Tovey A Selection of Video Clips

1. Tovey's receiving an honorary degree from the University of British Columbia, 2012, with an overview of Tovey's accomplishments and talents. The clip concludes with a sample of music from his opera THE INVENTER.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NzpxJ9SetOA>

2. Tovey's playing a sampling of the piano part to "Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin, with a short discussion of Gershwin's music.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tJ6yhrfHsCg>

3. Tovey's discussing his first meeting with the conductor Leonard Bernstein, which led to a long-term relationship.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eCOLf4FmJQQ>

4. For a sampling of Tovey's humor, view these three videos:

Tovey's introduction to "The Merry Widow Waltz," by Franz Lehar

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6E_WXBuGh7Q

Tovey's performance of "Blue Wind" to an audience of children

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RIGzNnEsLGA>

Tovey's conducting—and dancing—to Leroy Anderson's "Fiddle Faddle"

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6FoDrDdR0Yg>